Map shows average commute times by zip code as surveyed by the US Census Bureau

This map uses color gradation to show the percentage of each zip code population with long commutes over 60 minutes and the percentage of each living under the poverty level. Along the corridor, at least 86,598 people live below the poverty level and at least 59,781 people have a commute greater than 60 minutes.